

THE CITIZEN.

FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1878.

The Town of Safford—A Prosperous Settlement.

Mr. J. E. Bailey of Safford, passed through Florence early this week on his return home from Phoenix. We were pleased to learn from him most glowing accounts of the prosperous condition of the upper Gila Valley. Mr. Bailey informs us that at Safford, and for a distance of twelve miles down the river, the settlers are moving in very rapidly; over 800 having already located there. This forms a handsome settlement. The land along the river here is abundant and rich, and the water has never yet failed. Ten irrigating ditches are already completed, and several more are in course of construction. Large fields of wheat and barley are now growing, and a large amount of potatoes, melons, &c., have been planted.

Messrs. Jacobs & Cottrell, are putting up a flouring mill which will be located about a mile above the village. They are taking out a ditch which will be about two miles long; the fall in the ditch is five feet per mile, and at the mill they have a fall of twelve feet, which will give them ample water-power for the machinery. After the water has passed the mill, it will be utilized for irrigating purposes by the settlers. Safford is yet a young town, but its promises are not insignificant. The ditch bringing the water into the town is only just completed. People can now build here and beautify their homes; it is expected that the population within the town limits will rapidly increase. Mr. J. E. Bailey is putting up a handsome store, and making every preparation in a mercantile line to meet the growing demands of this prosperous settlement. The public school there was open during five months of the present year, with an average of twenty pupils, and the number will be largely increased next term.

The Pueblo Viejo Valley, without doubt, commands the best market in Arizona. The San Carlos Indian Agency is only sixty miles from Safford. At this agency hundreds of thousands of pounds of wheat, corn and barley are consumed annually. From Safford to Camp Grant, about 60 miles; to Camp Mohave, about 50 miles, and to Silver City, about 140 miles. It will easily be seen that with these large consuming posts so near the settlers, may be sure of a ready market for all the agricultural produce of the Safford Valley. There are also some fine stock ranges in the foothills near the river, and an abundance of excellent pine timber on Mount Graham, only thirty miles distant. Safford is also favored with excellent highways leading to the principal towns and posts where market is believed to be permanent, and the prospects of this settlement are most flattering.

Times in Arizona.

We hear frequent complaints about the hard times in Arizona. There is a class of indolent persons in every country who desire to live without work, and whenever the industry of the population refuse to contribute liberal support to these idlers they are ready to cry hard times, and declare that the country is good for nothing. Another class of men who seek to represent affairs in our Territory are certain paid agents of San Francisco speculators who visit our mining camps, and report adversely on good property and favorably on bad claims, in order to induce the miners to sell their claims at a low price. These men declare that there are no mines in Arizona; that the croppings are mere surface pockets, and the whole country is a desert.

These statements are without foundation. Our mines may lack development, but in mineral wealth we accept no second position, and for the industrious there is always food and employment. A late issue of the Nevada State Journal says that "Tramps are numerous on the Comstock. Hundreds of men are out of employment. Times are anything but good. Many miners are leaving for Arizona." We know of no section in Arizona where tramps are sufficiently numerous to be burdensome, and the fact that many old Nevada miners are looking Arizonaward, is an evidence that the true wealth and importance of this Territory are appreciated by many living outside of our boundaries. The rich development in mines and the operations in stock and agriculture warrant us in encouraging others to come here and locate. Not that they will find a fortune here in a day or in a year perhaps, but for the industrious there is employment in various occupations that will pay and pay well. This season promises to be a most favorable one for farmers and stockmen. The various new mills now in course of construction must soon add greatly to our bullion production, as soon as the railroad reaches the heart of Arizona the expense of living will be greatly reduced, heavy machinery can be brought in, a lower grade of ore can be shipped to San Francisco for reduction, our beef, mutton, but, ter, cheese, eggs, &c., will find a large and ready market on the Pacific Coast. When these things are affected, the importance of Arizona will be better understood and appreciated.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Congressional.
SAN DIEGO, April 25.—The Senate yesterday passed the bill extending the time to the Northern Pacific Railroad. A canvass of Congress shows that 236 members in both Houses are opposed to any action whatever on Blair's Presidential resolution.

The Returning Board.
A sensational statement is published that two members of the Florida Returning Board confessed frauds by which that State was carried for Hayes. Both parties were under indictment, and confession was made with a view to escape prosecution. On the other hand, the correspondent to the New York Times telegraphs from Florida that both men deny having made such confession.

Congress.
The House has passed the Senate bill repealing the Bankrupt Law. Over fifteen millions of 4½ per cent bonds have already been taken in New York.

Blair Depressed.
Blair is greatly depressed that so little concern is attached to his efforts to reopen the Presidential question.

Indian Depredations in Texas.
Many persons have been killed in Texas by Indians raiding across the border, and a large amount of stock has been stolen.

Severe Storms.
Severe storms are reported throughout the northwest doing great damage to the crops.

All at Par.
Greenbacks, gold and silver are all at par in San Francisco.

Eastern War News.
The outlook in Europe shows little change. Reports are conflicting. The opinion in St. Petersburg seems to be that England is trying to force a war. Russia and England are unable to agree as to the joint withdrawal of the war vessels and troops about Constantinople. The Russians are strengthening their positions and considerable movements of troops towards Constantinople and Gallipoli, are reported. The Russians are completing the Turkish lines of defense northeast of the city, and mounting heavy guns at San Stefano and other points along the coast, and are also placing batteries to frustrate attempts to land troops; 700 guns are in position along the coast.

Bismark and Gortschakoff III.
Bismark has been seriously attacked with erysipelas. Prince Gortschakoff, the Russian Prince Minister, is also seriously ill.

Congressional.
WASHINGTON, April 19.—House—On motion of Singleton, the bill appropriating $300,000 to provide for deficiencies in Public Printing Office was taken up in the House and passed.

New Indian Inspector.
WASHINGTON, April 19.—The Executive session of the Senate, to-day, was mainly occupied with discussion regarding the nomination of John McNeill, of Missouri as Indian Inspector. The principal ground of opposition was his having caused the execution of ten guerrillas while serving as an officer in the Union Army during the Rebellion. The Democratic Senators generally voted against his confirmation, but it was finally affected by 31 to 26.

Timber for Mining, &c.
The Senate to-day passed a bill authorizing bona fide residents of Colorado, Nevada and the Territories to fell timber on the public domain for mining and domestic purposes.

Items from Yuma Sentinel.
The Silver King Mining Company, declared its sixth consecutive monthly dividend of $50,000, payable April 15. Considerable milling machinery has come in for S. A. Buckingham, Globe City.

Three thousand dollars worth of silver bullion came in from Globe on Wednesday.

Judge Porter got home on Tuesday. He did not go to Tucson, as was expected.

The Silver King machinery, 65,000 pounds, arrived yesterday in elegant condition, looking clean, fresh and new. Prescott, Scott & Co., have made a good job of it. It is receiving prompt dispatch, ought to reach the mill by May 10, and be at work by June 1. Monday was lately sent forward for paying expenses of the past quarter, and the company does not owe a dollar in Arizona, except for current expenses incurred during the present month.

A friend writes that a nice big shipment of bullion, from the Signal mine, will come down by the next steamer, and will be followed by the Signal, will come down by the Mohave, and is evidently well enough pleased with the Signal, to "stay with" it.

Hon. H. S. Stevens for Congress.
Yesterday we received information that Hon. H. S. Stevens would be a candidate for re-election in the coming Congressional contest. Mr. Stevens has done our Territory excellent service during the two terms he has represented us at Washington, and we are greatly pleased to know that he will be again a candidate. It is quite generally conceded that he has endeavored to serve the best interests of the entire Territory without regard to section or party. Such a course of action is sure to secure firm friends, and ardent supporters, such as we know Mr. Stevens has. We consider him the most desirable candidate yet named with far the best chances of success. His reelection would be well received in this section, and we believe throughout the Territory.

Our old friend Mr. H. E. Lacy has been appointed post trader at Camp Apache and has formed a copartnership in the business with Messrs. Frank Staples and J. H. Toole of Tucson. These gentlemen are old residents of Arizona and are well and favorably known throughout the Territory. Mr. Lacy has been nearly twelve years in Arizona and during the entire time has been connected with mercantile business and traderships. Colonel Toole is one of the old pioneers. Frank Staples is not such an old resident but his generous hospitality and excellent social qualities have made him popular in many circles. The firm is capable in every respect and will no doubt secure the benefits of their fortunate location.
